HAWAII IN CONGRESS.

In the House of Representatives, December 9, 1902, Mr. Wilcox introduced the following bill, which was referred to the Committee on the Territories and ordered to be printed:

A Bill to Pay the Judgments Rendered under an Act of the Legislative Assembly of the Territory of Hawaii for Property Destroyed in Suppressing the Bubonic Plague in said Territory in 1899 and 1900.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the sum of $1,500,000 is hereby appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated to pay the judgments rendered under an act of the legislative assembly of the Territory of Hawaii by the Fire Claims Commission of that Territory for property destroyed in the suppression of the bubonic plague in said Territory in the years 1899 and 1900.

Sec. 2. That under no circumstances shall any such judgment claimant, or anyone claiming through him, be required to pay, nor shall any attorney or agent be entitled to charge, demand, or receive, directly or indirectly, more than ten per centum upon the amount recovered as compensation for services or labor of any kind or character in the prosecution or establishment of the claim, and in cases of contracts or agreements providing for payment of less than ten per centum the payment shall not be increased above the percentage so agreed upon. Before any such judgment shall be paid hereunder the Governor of said Territory must certify that the same is genuine and was duly rendered in pursuance of the act of the legislative assembly of the Territory; and the payment of said judgments shall be in full satisfaction and discharge of any and all claims or demands against said Territory or the United States on account of any property destroyed in the said suppression of the bubonic plague.

Sec. 3. That this Act shall take effect from and after its passage.

cember 11, 1902, Mr. Knox introduced the following bill, which was referred to the Committee on Claims and ordered to be printed:

A Bill to Pay in Part Judgments Rendered Under an Act of the Legislative Assembly of the Territory of Hawaii for Property Destroyed in Suppressing the Bubonic Plague in said Territory in 1899 and 1900 and Authorizing the Territory of Hawaii to Issue Bonds for the Payment of the Remaining Claims.

House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the sum of $1,000,000 is hereby appropriated, out of any money
in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to pay in part the judgments rendered under an act of the legislative assembly of the Territory of Hawaii by the Fire Claims Commission of that Territory for property destroyed in the suppression of the bubonic plague in said Territory in the years 1899 and 1900.

Sec. 2. That the Governor and Secretary of said Territory are hereby authorized to issue the bonds of that Territory in such sum, not exceeding five hundred thousand dollars, as, together with the money hereby appropriated, may be sufficient to pay all of said judgments. Said bonds shall be payable in gold coin of the United States of America of the present standard weight and fineness, shall bear interest at the rate of four per centum per annum, payable semiannually, and be redeemable in not less than five years and payable in not more than fifteen years from the date of issuance.
The principal and interest of all bonds

The First Local Mint.

One of the institutions here which has the special attention of tourists as well as the local people is the Mint, which is established on Nuuanu street, opposite Queen Emma Hall. It is interesting to enter the large main working room where general manager McDonough and his corps of assistants are at work. The cool and large lanai is a proper resting place and the vaults, where the "bars" to be minted and beer are kept present a very tasty spectacle. The Mint is open from 5:30 a. m. to 11:30 p. m. and during those hours the work never ceases.
Visitors after looking over the place will find first class refreshments and the purest of liquors.
